

STUDY GUIDE
8TH GRADE INTERNET SAFETY

Answer key

Directions: Answer the following questions with one word or a short phrase. (Questions on this SG and quiz will be from scavenger hunt, Cyberbully movie, and Illinois laws on Cyberbullying)

1. You should contact the site administrator if someone creates a social networking page in your name without your permission.
2. Is it generally a good idea to fire back at someone through social media that sends a bullying message to you?
No - you are just "adding fuel to the fire"
3. It is important to leave your online profile blank so you don't post your name, address, and other personal information.
4. You have control who looks at your account if your settings are set to private on a social networking site.
5. It is important to look at the background of any pictures you post online so you don't..... accidentally show something personal about where you live, etc.
6. True/False: Changing the words but copying the sentence structure of a source without giving credit is considered plagiarism.
7. True/False: Facts that are readily available from numerous sources and generally known to the public are considered "common knowledge," and are not protected by copyright laws.
8. In general, anything published more than 75 years ago is now in the public domain.
9. The right of the creator of a work to control how it is used is called Copyright.
10. The fair use exemption permits individuals to reproduce selected materials for the educational purposes without the permission of the copyright holder.
11. According to the Fair Use Guidelines, you can use up to 10% or no more than of 30 seconds of a song or musical work in a school project without the creator's permission.
12. In the movie, "Cyberbully," who creates the fake "Taylor" without her knowing?
her brother - Eric
13. What is the name of the site that so many of the kids in the school were using?
Click
14. True/False: The politician that the Mother talks to is very helpful right away in creating a law against bullying.
15. True/False: Illinois has laws in place for bullying, including Cyberbullying.